On Friday, December 31, Guests are invited to ring in the New Year in typical Plaza fashion – with an over-the-top, family-friendly, New Year's Eve 'Black, White and Pink' celebration. Guests are invited to join Eloise and her "mostly companion" Nanny, pet pug Weenie and turtle Skipperdee as 2010 comes to a close with an exclusive celebration in this landmark hotel.

- The celebration begins with dinner in The Palm Court: Three-course pre-fixe dinner menu for adults and children with seatings at 5:30pm and 6:30pm, including a full Chef's 'Chocolate Factory' display featuring treats such as giant lollipops, gum drops, a chocolate fountain, cakes and cookies, assorted berries, and a sundae bar. Prices are $120/person for adults and $85 for children up to 12 years of age.
- From 6:00 – 7:00pm in Eloise at The Plaza, games, arts & crafts and 'Eloise-themed' activities for all ages will be offered. The 2,100-square-foot shop resembling a playhouse, includes a Fashion Room, perfect for dress-up; a Library Room, where guests can watch their favorite Eloise movies and enjoy story time; the Beauty Salon; and a Tea Room.
- At 7:15pm, The Plaza Movie Screening in the Terrace Room, decorated in movie theater-style, will be playing Eloise cartoons leading up to the feature presentation – "Home Alone 2: Lost in New York" – a favorite holiday-themed family movie starring The Plaza Hotel.
- Following the screening of Home Alone 2, party guests are welcomed back into The Palm Court for a delicious dessert and hot fudge sundae bar until 10:15pm.
