

The New York Times

In Transit

A Guide to Intelligent Travel

July 1, 2011, 12:51 PM

The Plaza Hotel Reopens Its Tricycle Garage

By DANIELLE BELOPOTOSKY

Evan Sung, Courtesy of The Plaza Hotel

The Plaza Hotel reopen its Tricycle Garage on July 1.

The Plaza Hotel in New York City will revive its Tricycle Garage, which will be good news for “Eloise” fans — especially those lucky enough to stay at the renovated landmark hotel. Beginning on July 1, the Plaza will offer children’s bike rentals – including Radio Flyer tricycles, bicycles and scooters – for hotel guests and a few lucky New Yorkers.

The original Tricycle Garage opened in 1956, paying homage to Kay Thompson’s 1954 book, “Eloise.” Today, guests can reserve bikes intended for families to explore Central Park. The rentals range in price from $20 for two hours to an all-day rate of $40. For non-hotel guests, rentals are available on a first-come first-serve basis.

The Tricycle Garage, at the Plaza Boutique, is open all summer. The rentals also include a helmet, lock and, Eloise-branded bottled water.